

MOU SIGNED BETWEEN KATHMANDU SCHOOL OF LAW AND RADIO SINDHU

We are delighted to announce the successful renewal of the contract between Kathmandu School of Law and Radio Sindhu for the esteemed radio program "Bidhika Kura." The renewal agreement was signed on 8th Baisakh 2080, reaffirming the joint commitment to promote legal awareness through radio broadcasting.

The contract signing ceremony at Kathmandu School of Law was graced by the presence of distinguished personalities from both institutions:

- Professor Dr. Kumar Ingam: Principal of Kathmandu School of Law
- Ratna Shrestha: Executive Chair of Radio Sindhu
- Associate Professor Gyanu Gautam: Coordinator of the Clinical Law Department at Kathmandu School of Law

Along with several staff and intern members from the E-education Clinic.

"Bidhika Kura" has been effectively bridging the gap between legal knowledge and the public. Through engaging discussions and expert interviews, the program has raised legal awareness and provided valuable insights into various legal matters.

This renewal demonstrates the continued collaboration between Kathmandu School of Law and Radio Sindhu to enhance legal literacy across society. Both parties are enthusiastic about expanding the program's reach to a wider audience, ensuring legal education reaches every corner of the community.

Under the renewed contract, "Bidhika Kura" will continue to be broadcasted on Radio Sindhu at its regular time slot, i.e. 7:30 pm every Wednesday providing a platform for legal experts, scholars, and students to engage with the public on matters of law and justice.

Kathmandu School of Law expresses gratitude to Radio Sindhu for their unwavering support and partnership. Similarly, Radio Sindhu acknowledges the significant contributions of Kathmandu School of Law and its faculty members in making the program a resounding success.

We eagerly anticipate the continued growth and impact of "Bidhika Kura" in promoting legal awareness and empowering the community with legal knowledge
