

PURBANCHAL UNIVERSITY
KATHMANDU SCHOOL OF LAW
Accredited (QAA) by UGC- Nepal
LL.M Entrance Examination 2081

CRIMINAL LAW AND JUSTICE GROUP

Time: 01 hour

Full Marks: 40

Pass Marks: 20

Attempt the Questions

20 x 1 = 20

1. 'Judges should make bold policy decisions and even chart new constitutional ground'. Do you believe it? Critically examine both pros and cons of Judicial Activism taking any one of the side.

OR

2. What do you understand by Justice? What are its essential components? Relate your answer from the perspective of the Theory propounded by John Rawls.

20 x 1 = 20

3. Mr. A, Mr. B and Mr. C went to trip to Mustang. On the way back, Mr. A got into conflict with Mr. B and Mr. C. Mr. A's death body was found near the cliff after 3 days. Information was reported to police by locals. Police arrested Mr. B and Mr. C. Here, Mr. B and Mr. C said that they had conflict with each other and added that after conflict they dispersed with Mr. A, and move ahead. A's family filed FIR of intentional homicide against Mr. B and Mr. C. Discuss this case on the light of principles of criminal law and forensic jurisprudence.

OR

4. Mr. S and Ms. B were friends. Mr. S approached Ms. B for doing business and asked her to accompany him to India. She agreed and went with him. On the way to India, Mr. M accompanied them. Where about of Ms. B was unknown until her death body was found. Ms. B's family already filed case of missing at police station. Later when death body was found her family member filed FIR of kidnapping and homicide against Mr. S and Mr. M.
Discuss it from perspective of liabilities and criminal jurisprudence.